New York.

Attention of Mr. Mac Gillivay.

My dear Sir:-

I am enclosing a bill for the photographs of decorations and medals furnished Colonel Wyllie sometime ago. I have not sent this bill sooner because I thought that Col. Wyllie might have some additional photographing to be done as there have been one or two new things come out since he was here, but I think I have waited long enough now. You will remember that I spoke to you about this bill over the phone, and you told me then to send it to you.

Very truly yours,

Assistant to Curator.
